

School of Natural Sciences

Molecular and Comparative Physiology Seminar Series, semester 2, 2012-2013

Date	Speaker	Title
January 25 th *	Dr Jonathan T. Erichsen, (Cardiff University)	Dispatches from the avian front: Control of visuomotor behaviour  * This seminar will take place at 2PM
February 1 st	Dr Cynthia Coleman (REMEDI - National Centre for Biomedical Engineering Science, NUIG)	Growth Differentiation Factor 5: From Embryonic Expression to Clinical Application
February 8 th 	Dr Colin Pendry (Royal Botanic Gardens, Edinburgh)	The Flora of Nepal – a Flora for the 21st century
February 22 nd	Dr Gerhard Schlosser (Dept of Zoology, NUIG)	How old genes make new senses: development and evolution of vertebrate cranial placodes.
March 1 st	Dr Swidberth Ott (Department of Zoology, University of Cambridge)	Ganging up for a change: causes and consequences of swarming behaviour in Desert Locusts
March 8 th	Dr. Glenn McConkey, (School of Biology, University of Leeds)	Production of neurochemicals by mind-altering parasites in animal brains.
March 22 nd	Prof Sunetra Gupta (Department of Zoology, University of Oxford)	The antigenic evolution of influenza: drift or thrift?

Seminars will take place on Fridays at 3:00 pm* in the Botany Lecture Theatre, Botany Building, TCD.
Beverages and snacks will be provided after presentations.

** part of the Ecology and Evolution seminar series

Please direct any enquiries to paula.murphy@tcd.ie